National Music & Entertainment

E-Town

Like old-time radio variety shows, every E-Town show is taped in front of a live audience and features performances from many of today's top musical artists as well as conversation and information about our communities and our environment. Hosted by Nick and Helen Forster. Monday, 7 PM

New Dimension's

New Dimension's dialogues are focused on vital interests of thoughtful, insightful, people concerned with the spiritual, psychological, sociopolitical and the physical health of individuals and the world. Our guests are innovative, articulate, active, concerned practitioners who inspire and instruct. Many of our guests are well known in their fields, others are just coming into their own.

Blues Before Sunrise

This Chicago-based program explores, preserves, and popularizes the various eras and genre of the blues, from Mamie Smith's "Crazy Blues," the very first blues record, recorded in August of 1920, to approximately 1970. This is the period that defined the Blues as America's true root music - the basis for the root of American popular music including Gospel, Jazz, Rhythm & Blues, Soul, and Rock & Roll. Saturday and Sunday, 2-6 AM

Thistle & Shamrock

Guided by your host Fiona Ritchie, step into the heart of an ancient tradition of reels, jigs, ballads, and laments. Then follow the pulse towards new music: an exuberant blend of irresistible rhythms, emotional voices, and fascinating instruments. Saturday, 9 AM
