

KRCB RADIO 91 FM PROGRAMMING

Local Programs - Spoken Word

Word by Word

Discussions with authors about the books they create and their love and labor of the craft. 1st Wednesday, 7 PM

A Novel Idea

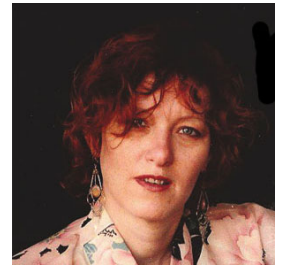

New host Rosemary Manchester describes herself as a voracious reader and will select books for the radio book club that she hopes will appeal to other readers, voracious or not. 2nd Wednesday, 7 PM

Word Temple

Features Northern California poet Katherine Hastings in discussion with poets and writers. The program showcases authors by presenting interviews and readings of their work, and exposes the KRCB community of listeners to a wide variety of voices and styles. 3rd Wednesday, 7 PM

Mouthful

Discussions with winemakers, farmers, cookbook authors, writers, photographers, filmmakers, nutritionists, chefs, restaurateurs and environmentalists take unexpected, surprising and delicious turns as we explore how we eat, drink, grow and celebrate our food, and feed each other. Sunday 7 PM

Another Voice

Susan Swartz is a columnist for the Press Democrat and a weekly commentator for Another Voice which airs on Fridays. Her topics range from Boomer angst to backyard weddings to what those people in Washington are doing to us now. Fridays at 6:35 & 8:35 AM and 6:45 PM.

Outbeat Salon

Music, international and local news and commentary by, for and about gay, lesbian & bi peoples. Mostly music, interviews and live performances. Sundays at 8 PM

Programming subject to change

KRCB Public Television 22 and Radio 91
5850 Labath Avenue, Rohnert Park, CA 94928
707-584-2000 krcb.org

