Home Improvement

Ask This Old House

Responding to America's quest to interact with television's favorite home improvement team, This Old House is reaching out to home enthusiasts around the country with its newest addition, Ask This Old House. Traveling to homeowners' doorsteps, the Ask This Old House expert team will personally tackle viewer home improvement issues.

This Old House

This Old House is your source for expert advice on home improvement, remodeling, and decorating. Ideas on everything from kitchen and bath to yard and garden.

For Your Home

A creative, do-it-yourself program for homeowners, gardeners, and crafters. The dynamic mother/daughter team of Vicki Payne and Sloan Payne Rutter brings viewers the latest trends, tips, products, and gadgets for improving homes from the inside out.

Hometime

A do-it-yourself home-improvement series that aims to provide the average homeowner with step-by-step home-improvement advice for professional-looking results.

New Yankee Workshop

Master carpenter Norm Abram shows viewers how to turn a forgotten corner of the garage into the workshop of their dreams in this season.

The Woodwright's Shop

Since introducing this series to PBS viewers more than 20 years ago, Roy Underhill has taken his unabashed enthusiasm for traditional American woodworking to fans week in and week out.
