Sewing & Quilting

America Sews with Sue Hausmann

In this hectic, hurry up world, America Sews with Sue Hausmann reminds us of the simple pleasures one gets from making beautiful and useful sewing creations. Sue and her weekly guests have an exciting and innovative line up of shows. You'll learn the latest in tips, tools, and techniques.

Sewing with Nancy Zieman

Sewing embellishment, easy vintage quilts, embroidery applique, festive sewing & sewing for the home and the family.

Martha's Sewing Room

A "how-to" television series that covers everything from beautiful quilts to heirloom sewing. Doll dresses... Antique clothing... Hand embroidery... Crafts and home decorations. The host is Martha Pullen, an accomplished seamstress and author.

Needle Arts Studio

Shay Pendray invites viewers into her studio promising to open up a World of Possibilities. She uses crochet, knitting, embroidery, cross-stitch, and needlepoint to fulfill her promise with inspiring and innovative designs.

Fons & Porter's Love of Quilting

Marianne Fons & Liz Porter, the most popular quilters on public television, continue their series of in-depth demonstrations on the art and craft of creating beautiful quilts. Beginner or expert, viewers with a passion for quilting will be inspired by Fons and Porter's tips, designs, and techniques.

Quilting Arts TV

Quilting Arts Magazine and Cloth Paper Scissors editor Patricia Bolton is taping episodes of a new PBS quilting show called, appropriately enough, Quilting Arts TV. Patricia will host the show, which will debut near the end of this year. We're already busy designing the set, lining up guest quilt artists and designers, and obtaining sponsorships so we can bring artful ideas and inspiration right into your sewing room.

Knitting Daily

On Knitting Daily, viewers will meet trendsetting designers and improve or learn new skills. Join knitting expert Eunny Jang, ace crocheter Kim Werker, spinning and weaving fiberista Liz Gipson, and America's favorite stitcher Shay Pendray. Viewers are invited to explore the world's most beautiful fibers, yarns, and tools. They will be inspired to learn how to make the perfect sweater, decorate their home with fiber, needle-felt bags and scarves, embellish knitwear with metal, buttons, and embroidery, and much more.
